Step Back in Time at The Graduate Providence

Let The Graduate hotel transport you to a bygone era of sophisticated elegance, where touches of Rhode Island's rich culture and history are thoughtfully woven into the décor.

Ideally located in the heart of Providence, the hotel places you within walking distance of top attractions. Catch a show at the acclaimed Trinity Repertory Theater, sip craft cocktails at eclectic local bars, shop at the renowned Providence Place Mall, or enjoy a riverside stroll along the scenic Providence River.

Savor the bold flavors of Italian cuisine in the storied Federal Hill neighborhood, or explore international dining options near the historic Brown University campus. Just a short ride away, the Roger Williams Park and Zoo offer a relaxing natural escape.

Wrap up your stay with a tranquil gondola ride through the city and Waterplace Park, or, if you're feeling adventurous, hop on a ferry across Narragansett Bay to Newport, RI—a seaside gem known for its vibrant arts scene, boutique shopping, opulent mansions, and the iconic Cliff Walk.

For those looking to venture farther, Amtrak's high-speed Acela service makes Boston and New York City just a few stops away.
