Let The Graduate (by Hilton) hotel take you back in time to sophisticated elegance. Hints of Rhode Island culture and history are embedded in the décor. Located in the heart of Providence, enjoy a performance at the Trinity Reperatory Theater, sip craft cocktails at eclectic establishments, shop at the renowned Providence Place Mall, or stroll along the Providence River, all of which are an easy walk from your hotel entrance. Indulge your palate with sumptuous Italian dishes and desserts in the infamous Federal Hill neighborhood. Nearby Brown University environs welcomes several international cuisines. The Roger Williams Zoo and Park are a short ride away. End your bustling but productive few days on a lazy gondola ride through the city and Waterplace Park. Looking to explore more? Ferry service is available to traverse Narragansett Bay and drop you off in Newport, RI, home of artists, shopping, mansions, and the Cliff Walk. The cities of Boston and New York are a few stops away on Amtrak's Northeast Acela.
